Dear Mr. Morisy:

This is in response to your letter dated April 11, 2013, which was received in my office on April 16, 2013 for processing under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

You requested request an electronic copy of the meeting minutes and meeting agendas for the meetings of the OCC National Risk Committee (NRC) from January 1, 2009 to the present.

Meeting minutes are not kept by the National Risk Committee. Therefore they are not available.

Your request for the meeting agendas of the OCC National Risk Committee is denied. The authority for withholding this information is 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(5) and 12 C.F.R. 4.12(b)(5), relating to an intra agency or interagency memorandum or letter not routinely available by law to a private party in litigation, including, memoranda, reports, and other documents prepared by OCC employees, and records of deliberations and discussions at meetings of OCC employees.

If you consider any of the above to be an improper denial of your request, you may appeal such denial to the Comptroller of the Currency. The appeal should be filed within 35 days of the date of this letter, should state the circumstances and reasons or arguments in support of the appeal, and be submitted via our online FOIA application at <https://foia-pal.occ.gov/> or be mailed to the Manager, Disclosure Services & Freedom of Information Act Officer, Communications Division, Suite 3E-218, Mailstop 6W-11, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, DC 20219.

Sincerely,

Frank D. Vance, Jr.
